

Dear Live Oak Beefmaster Breeders Association Member:

LOBBA now has a website. You can view the website at www.lobba.net. Thanks to one of our new directors, Jim Dunkin for developing the site. The website is very impressive.

In viewing the website you will find the history of LOBBA, a list of past LOBBA Legend Award recipients, a list of the prestigious LOBBA Bull Sale Grand Champion winners and a list of the Board of Directors. Also, you will find LOBBA sale dates for 2009.

As a member you have an opportunity to advertise your Beefmaster operation by having your business card posted on the LOBBA website. The cost of business card size (2 X 3) advertising space is a one time set-up fee of $50.00 plus $100.00 per year. If a member has their own website and wishes to have a link from the LOBBA website to their website, there will be an additional charge of $50.00 per year. A one year advertising cost on the LOBBA website will run from July 1st to June 30th.

If you wish to use your business card to advertise on the LOBBA website, please send a business card with the completed form along with payment. If you don't have a business card or do not wish to use it for the website, you may still advertise on the website by providing the information requested on the form and sending the form along with payment. This information will be placed on the website in a 2" x 3" space.

The deadline to be included for the 2009-2010 year will be July 1, 2009.

Thank you,

Billy Welkener
